

TWO ARRESTS MAY FOLLOW INQUEST

Coroner Goldenkranz to Probe Mystery of the Strange Death of Pretty Charlotte Tucker in Flower Hospital.

The suspicious circumstances surrounding the death of Charlotte Tucker, nineteen years old, who died at the Flower Hospital, has decided Coroner Goldenkranz to hold an inquest.

He has subpoenaed the house surgeon of the hospital to appear before him to-morrow and will ask him to explain why such a patient was received at the hospital, and why, after being received, she was allowed to remain in there seven days, daily growing worse, without the authorities being notified.

Ten witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear at the inquest and two physicians will be called upon to tell all they know of the case. It is believed at least two arrests may follow the inquest and one physician may have to answer a criminal charge.

Coroner Goldenkranz says he was amazed at the attitude of the hospital authorities. "The girl was taken there on March 16, and it seems to me," he says, "her secret was most carefully guarded. Even after her death I was bluntly informed that I must collect my own information regarding the case. These things must be explained. There is not the slightest doubt the girl died from septic poisoning, and the nature of her illness must have been apparent from the time she was received at the hospital."

Doctor Is Retained.
Mrs. Lillian G. Tucker, stepmother of the girl, said her daughter was attended before being taken to the hospital by Dr. James D. Miller, of No. 3 West Twelfth street. It was this physician who made arrangements for her transfer to the hospital. He declined to state why he had not informed the police of the case. Robert Magruder, a travelling man, who is said to have posed as the uncle of the girl, visited the March street police station with his attorney, George Edwin Joseph, and said he had just learned that his name had been mentioned in connection with the case. He denied all relationship to the girl and said he was a widower with several children. He had been introduced to Miss Tucker by her stepmother at the Victoria Hotel.

While he was in the station Mrs. Tucker, the stepmother, entered. She greeted Magruder as a friend and accompanied his statement. Magruder will appear at the inquest to-morrow. Miss Tucker was employed by the Manhattan Registration Company at No. 20 Broad street.

Coroner Goldenkranz to-day opened the trunk belonging to Miss Tucker and found several letters. One written on the note paper of the Guatemala Tropical Fruit Co., No. 49-51 Wall street, and signed "Gus," read in part: "I have been somewhat sick. It is very kind of you to send me a letter. It came as a sweet messenger of joy and gladness with pleasant thoughts and memories. I am pleased to learn that you have improved. You must write your beauty sleep in thinking of me. Leave that to older people. You must not think."

This letter was written on Jan. 13. A newspaper clipping was also found in the trunk. It concerned the suicide of Louis J. Tucker, who had written to his daughter just before taking his own life.

DEAD BABY IN ASH CART.

Marks On Neck Indicate Child May Have Been Murdered.

Italian ransackers working in the dump at Gowanus Canal and Sixth street, Brooklyn, to-day found the naked body of a ten-month-old boy baby in a box which, with other refuse, had just been dropped from cart No. 20, of the Street Cleaning Department. The child had been dead less than twenty-four hours. There were slight marks about the neck which the police thought might be due to strangulation. The child had black hair and all the appearance of having been in robust health up to the time of its death. Coroner's Physician Hartung will make an autopsy on the body to-day.

The cart which brought the body to the dump covered Section No. 1, of Brooklyn borough, which is all the territory along Atlantic avenue from Court street to the South ferry. The police are searching this section to-day in the hope of locating the parents of the child.

25c. Madras at 12c.

32 inches wide.

The patterns are quite different from the ordinary because the weaver never intended the goods to be sold by the yard over the counters. They were woven for a well-known maker of pajamas and negligee shirts in pretty stripe and check designs, with the highly mercerized stripes standing out a bit bolder than ordinary. The colors are warranted fast. The reason the pajama and shirt man missed getting the lot is not half as interesting as the less than halved price. The one drawback is that there is enough for only one day's selling.
